

Metrology - Measuring instruments (Directive 2014/32/EU) and Non-automatic weighing instruments (NAWI) (Directive 2014/31/EU)

Please consult the Call for Expression for full information on the specific tasks, general specifications and the application. Specific requirements for this sector include:

Qualifications

- Master degree (or equivalent) in a relevant subject (Metrology, Engineering, Physics) and 8 years of proven relevant professional experience,
or
- Bachelor degree (or equivalent) in a relevant subject (Metrology, Engineering, Physics) and 10 years of proven relevant professional experience,
or
- An outstanding proven relevant professional experience of at least 15 years

Expertise

- A proven track record of working with harmonised and international standards in the field of Metrology
- Knowledge of Directives 2014/32/EU and 2014/31/EU
- Expertise with the functioning and use of measuring instruments,
- Experience in designing, manufacturing and/or testing/inspecting measuring instruments, or in regulating measuring instruments.
- Expertise with smart meter/grids and E-vehicles would be considered as an asset

Candidates should have preferably a good understanding of the following topics:

- Measurement and testing
- Metrology