Notes:

1. For taxation years ending after 2015, the refundable additional Part I tax on investment income earned by a CCPC is 10.67% and the resulting federal rate applicable to investment income earned by a CCPC is 38.67%. The additional refundable tax as well as a portion of the regular Part I tax paid on the investment income is refundable to the CCPC as follows: 30.67% of the investment income is added to the CCPC's non-eligible refundable dividend tax on hand account (or its refundable dividend tax on hand (RDTOH) account for taxation years beginning before 2019) and is refundable at a rate of 38.33% of taxable dividends paid. The 13.00% federal general rate reduction does not apply to investment income earned by a CCPC.
2. In June 2018, the government enacted changes to the RDTOH regime that limit the circumstances in which the payment of eligible dividends triggers a dividend refund, effective for taxation years beginning after 2018, subject to transitional rules. Under these rules, eligible dividends may be paid only out of a private corporation's eligible refundable dividend tax on hand account.
3. The federal general rate reduction of 13.00% applies to the base federal rate of 28.00% for active business income not eligible for other incentives, as well as to investment income earned by a non-CCPC.
4. Nova Scotia reduced its general corporate income tax rate from 16.00% to 14.00%, effective April 1, 2020.
5. Quebec gradually reduced the general corporate income tax rate from 11.90% to 11.50% over four years, effective January 1 of each year beginning in 2017, in accordance with the following schedule: 2017 - 11.80%; 2018 - 11.70%; 2019 - 11.60%; and 2020 - 11.50%.
6. Alberta has accelerated the tax cuts that were enacted in 2019, by reducing the province's general corporate income tax rate from 10.00% to 8.00% effective July 1, 2020. The rate was originally scheduled to be reduced from 10.00% to 9.00% on January 1, 2021 and to 8.00% on January 1, 2022. The general corporate income tax rate was already reduced to 11.00% effective July 1, 2019 and to 10.00% effective January 1, 2020.
