EY

Building a better
working world

The Global Code of Conduct draws on our shared values.

Who we are

Our values

People who demonstrate integrity, respect and teaming.

People with energy, enthusiasm and the courage to lead.

People who build relationships based on doing the right thing.

To the people of EY

EY is committed to doing its part in building a better working world.

Our Global Code of Conduct and our values underpin this purpose. They represent our commitment to all our stakeholders that we understand the confidence that they place in us to deliver quality and excellence in everything we do.

Every day each one of us could be faced with challenging and difficult choices; it's simply a part of living and working in a demanding, complex and increasingly globalized business environment. But it's the integrity and professionalism that we bring to these challenges that defines our reputation.

We are each accountable for our own decisions. And we are accountable to all our EY colleagues across the world. The Code provides a clear set of standards for our business conduct. It presents each of us with an ethical and behavioral framework to guide our response to the challenging and sometimes difficult choices we face. It also reflects our values.

Each of us has the responsibility to respond in a manner consistent with our values whenever we encounter an ethical issue, including speaking up when we see behavior that compromises the principles of the Code. While most issues can be resolved locally, you will find information within this Code about additional support and resources available globally. It's essential that everyone at EY fully complies with the Code. By doing so, we send a clear message to those we work with about the strength of our commitment to ethical behavior and quality.

In this way we protect and enhance the reputation of EY, and play a key role in building a better working world for our people, for our clients and for our communities.

Sincerely,

Carmine Di Sibio
Global Chairman and CEO

EY Global Code of Conduct

The EY Global Code of Conduct provides the ethical framework on which we base our decisions – as individuals and as members of our global organization. The Code is anchored in our values and beliefs, and underpins all that we do.

Our Global Code of Conduct is organized into five categories containing guiding principles that should be used by everyone within EY to guide our behavior across all areas of our activity:

1. Working with one another
2. Working with clients and others
3. Acting with professional integrity
4. Maintaining our objectivity and independence
5. Respecting intellectual capital

We expect everyone who works at EY to behave in accordance with the principles contained in the Global Code of Conduct. Whenever we encounter an ethical issue, each of us has the responsibility to respond in a manner that reflects our values in action, including the responsibility to speak up when we see any behavior that we believe does not live up to the principles in the Code. If you do not understand the principles contained within the Code, or are not sure how to apply them, you should consult with an appropriately qualified colleague to get your questions answered.

Our commitment

The Global Code of Conduct applies to everyone at EY, regardless of their individual role, position or practice.

- ▶ We promote and support the Global Code of Conduct in our day-to-day business activities, through both personal leadership and business practice.
- ▶ Each of us is expected to behave according to the principles contained in the Global Code of Conduct. We encourage consultation and the seeking of advice, as appropriate, from the resources available to assist in application of the Code.
- ▶ We understand that deviations from or violations of the Global Code of Conduct are unacceptable and that we should feel able to raise them, without fear of retaliation, with an appropriate colleague or to the relevant ethics hotline. EY does not permit discrimination or retaliation of any kind for good faith reports of illegal or unethical behavior.
- ▶ We acknowledge that breaches of the Global Code of Conduct may result in our practices taking disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.
- ▶ We affirm in writing our understanding of the principles contained in the Global Code of Conduct and our commitment to abide by them.

Where to find support

In developing this Global Code of Conduct, the leadership of EY recognizes that no code can cover every eventuality – and that from time to time we may require the advice and support of others in addressing some of the situations that arise during the normal course of daily business life.

We have long promoted a consultative culture at EY. In addition to established internal relationships, we have created a support network that is available for consultation and advice, to help each of us live up to our commitments under the Code.

Here are some of the places where you can go for advice and guidance:

- ▶ Risk Management and Quality Leaders, who have been appointed at the Global, Service Line, Area and local level
- ▶ The Talent team at all levels within the global organization
- ▶ The Office of the General Counsel or Legal Counsel in your Area or locally
- ▶ Professional Practice Directors
- ▶ Global, Area, and local policies and procedures, including online resources and databases
- ▶ Ethics hotlines and ethics oversight teams

Putting it into action

This Global Code of Conduct gives everyone at EY an ethical framework to help make the right decisions. The principles contained in the Code provide us with a clear set of standards, grounded in our values, on which to base our behavior across all areas of our professional activity.

How do we put the Code into action? How can each of us make sure that we are living up to our commitments under the Code? How do we speak up if we have an issue or suspect any behavior that does not live up to the principles in the Code?

If you are unsure of the right course of action, or are faced with a difficult issue, asking yourself the following questions may help you determine the appropriate way to act.

1. Have I consulted appropriately with colleagues?
2. Are my actions legal and in compliance with the standards of our profession?
3. Am I compromising my integrity or the integrity of EY or our clients?
4. Am I upholding the values of EY?
5. Am I treating others the way I expect others to treat me?
6. Is my choice of action the most ethical among the possible alternatives? Do I feel good about my choice?
7. If I document my decision, would a reviewer agree with the action I have taken?
8. Would my actions damage the reputation of EY?
