

EY GDS Argentina Purchase Order Terms & Conditions

The following terms apply as between the EY entity as set out in the Purchase Order ("EY") and Supplier. Save as set out in the paragraphs below, in the event of any conflict, ambiguity or inconsistency between the terms and conditions of this Purchase Order and any other document relating to this transaction, including any terms and conditions in any invoice, proposal, or other Supplier document, the terms and conditions of this Purchase Order shall govern.

For avoidance of doubt, the aforementioned terms and conditions shall only apply and be binding upon the parties to this Purchase Order where there is no mutually executed agreement in place between the parties to this Purchase Order to govern the purchase of the item/s or services described in it, prior to the issuance of the Purchase Order (in which case, the terms of such mutually executed agreement shall prevail over the terms of this Purchase Order).

Any processing of Personal Data contained in Supplier's records, files or databases shall be carried out on behalf and order of the person responsible for the databases for the sole purpose of providing the Services set forth in this Purchase Order.

Supplier declares that it may not use Personal Data contained in the records, files or databases of EY for purposes unrelated to the provision of the Services, nor enter into any legal transaction with respect to such Personal Data except as expressly set forth and authorized in this Purchase Order.

Upon termination of this Purchase Order, Supplier shall destroy all copies of EY's Personal Data in its possession within 2 (two) days of termination of the Purchase Order, unless expressly authorized to retain Personal Data for possible future assignments, extensions or new service contracts. In these cases, Personal Data may not be kept for a period of time longer than 2 (two) years from termination of the Purchase Order.

Supplier acknowledges that EY's files, records and/or databases are the sole ownership of EY.

Supplier shall be liable for the breach of the obligations established in this Agreement and in the PDPL, regulatory and complementary rules, and shall hold EY harmless against any claim, process, intimation or procedure of the owners of the Personal Data as well as of the supervisory authority derived from the violation or breach of the applicable personal data protection rules.

Nothing in this Clause shall prevent the parties from disclosing Personal Data if required to do so by law, by reasoned decision of any competent authority, or by court or administrative order, in which case the requested party shall use its best efforts to limit access to the greatest extent possible, and prompt notice of such request shall be given to the opposing party. In addition, the parties shall cooperate with each other in attempting to limit such access by methods permitted by law.

EY GDS Argentina Purchase Order Terms & Conditions

Supplier shall comply with the Argentine legal framework on information privacy and personal data protection, in particular with the PDPL and its complementary and regulatory rules, as well as those that may replace them in the future. Additionally, Supplier shall be liable for any and all eventual pecuniary, judicial or administrative sanctions received by EY Network Members as a consequence of its non-compliance with the obligations of this Clause.

- 21. Ownership of the Work Product. Any and all intellectual property resulting from the rendering of the Services, including but not limited to the Work Product conceived, developed, or prepared by Supplier, its, employees or subcontractors hired by the Supplier in the course of performing the Services under this Agreement, or that result from or that are related to such Services, whether or not they are eligible for copyright, patent, trade secret, trademark or other intellectual property protection (the "Intellectual Property"), shall belong exclusively to EY. Supplier hereby automatically and irrevocably assigns to EY, and hereby causes its personnel automatically to assign to EY, at the time of creation of the Intellectual Property, without any requirement of further consideration, any right, title, or interest it or they may have in such Intellectual Property, including any copyrights, patents, trade secrets or other intellectual property rights pertaining thereto. At EY's request and expense, during and after the term of this Agreement, Supplier will (and will cause all Supplier personnel to) assist and cooperate with EY in all respects, execute documents, and take such further acts reasonably requested by EY to enable EY to acquire, transfer, maintain, perfect and enforce its intellectual property rights and other legal protections for the Intellectual Property or the Work Product, including, but not limited to, assisting and cooperating with EY so that any assignments of intellectual property rights under this Agreement are enforceable against third parties by registering such assignments before the relevant Copyright Offices, in EY's name and/or in the name of whomever EY designates at its exclusive discretion.

Supplier hereby automatically and irrevocably assigns to EY, and hereby causes its personnel automatically to assign to EY, at the time of creation of the Intellectual Property or the Work Product, without any requirement of further consideration, any and all Moral Rights (as defined below) that Supplier or its personnel may have in or with respect to the Intellectual Property or the Work Product. "Moral Rights" mean any rights to claim authorship of a work, to object to or prevent the modification or destruction of a work, to withdraw from circulation or control the publication or distribution of a work, and any similar right, regardless of whether or not such right is called or generally referred to as a "moral right." In the event such Moral Rights cannot be assigned under applicable law, Supplier hereby automatically and irrevocably waives, and hereby causes its personnel automatically to waive, at the time of creation of the Intellectual Property or Work Product, without any requirement of further consideration, such Moral Rights; and further consents, and causes to its personnel to consent, to any action of EY that would violate such Moral Rights. Supplier shall confirm any such waivers and consents from time to time, as requested by EY. In the event such Moral Rights cannot be waived or that consent cannot be granted under applicable law, Supplier hereby automatically grants to EY, and hereby causes its personnel automatically to grant to EY, at the time of creation of the Intellectual Property or the Work Product, without any requirement of further consideration, an exclusive, perpetual, irrevocable, worldwide, fully paid-up and royalty-free license to such Moral Rights, and undertakes not to enforce any such Moral Rights against EY and its successors.

- 22. Survival and Severance. Clauses 4, 9, 10, 15, 20, 21 and this Section 22 shall continue in full force and effect following the termination or expiry of this Purchase Order for any reason, together with any terms which by implication should survive. If any provision of this Purchase Order or any part thereof is determined to void or unenforceable by any court or body of competent jurisdiction or by virtue of any legislation to which it is subject or by virtue of any other reason whatsoever, it will be void or unenforceable to that extent only and the validity and enforceability of any of the other provisions or the remainder of any such provision will not be affected.
