5. Intellectual Property Rights.
- 5.1 All Intellectual Property Rights belonging to a party prior to the execution of the Agreement shall remain vested in and belong exclusively to that party ("Existing IPR"). Nothing in the Agreement shall be taken to be a transfer or assignment of or an agreement to transfer or assign any of EY's (or an EY Network Member's) Intellectual Property Rights to the Supplier.
- 5.2 The Supplier shall not be entitled to use any of EY's Intellectual Property Rights other than as set out in the Agreement and shall not permit any third party to use such rights without the express written consent of EY.
- 5.3 EY grants Supplier, during the term of the Agreement only, a non-exclusive, royalty free, non-transferable, non-sub-licensable and revocable licence to use EY's Intellectual Property Rights in any materials, including data belonging to EY, supplied by EY to Supplier, solely to the extent that such use of those Intellectual Property Rights is required for the purpose of performing its obligations under the Agreement. EY provides such materials and data on an "as is" basis and gives no warranty either express or implied in respect of the same.
- 5.4 Except as expressly set out in the Agreement or a Purchase Order, EY shall own all right, title, and interest, including all Intellectual Property Rights, in any Works upon creation. Supplier assigns and shall procure that its subcontractors and Supplier Personnel assign to EY with full title guarantee (by way of present assignment of future rights) the Intellectual Property Rights in the Works together with the right to sue for and recover damages or other relief in respect of the infringement of such Intellectual Property Rights, and, at EY's request, Supplier shall take any action necessary to perfect such rights. For any Supplier Existing IPR in the Works, Supplier grants to EY, for its benefit and for the benefit of the other EY Network Members (or shall procure the direct grant of) a fully paid-up, worldwide, non-exclusive, royalty-free, perpetual and irrevocable licence to use, copy, modify sub-license, distribute, display and otherwise engage the Works.
6. Charges.
- 6.1 EY shall pay Supplier undisputed Charges, via electronic bank transfer, within 45 days of receipt of a correct, undisputed and properly due invoice submitted in accordance with this Section 6. EY shall not pay any Charges invoiced more than 180 calendar days from the date such Charges should have been invoiced. Supplier shall be deemed to have waived the right to be paid for such amounts. If EY disputes an invoice in good faith, EY shall notify Supplier of the amount and nature of the dispute. EY may withhold payment of the disputed amount until the dispute is resolved. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, Supplier shall continue to perform its obligations under the Agreement. EY shall pay interest on undisputed amounts not paid by the due date at an annual rate of 2% above the base rate for the time being of the Barclays Bank plc calculated from and including the day the sum became due for payment up to but excluding the date of payment.

- 6.3 Except as expressly set out in the Agreement or a Purchase Order, Charges do not include any taxes, levies, duties or similar governmental assessments, including, value-added, sales or use taxes, assessable by any jurisdiction whatsoever. EY will pay taxes only in accordance with applicable laws. If Supplier has a legal obligation to pay or collect taxes for which EY is responsible, Supplier will invoice EY, and EY will pay that amount, unless EY provides Supplier with a valid tax exemption certificate or other basis for exemption under applicable laws. EY will only pay such taxes on Supplier's provision of a valid tax invoice that meets all of the requirements of relevant tax authorities (to allow EY to obtain relief from such tax if such relief procedure is available). Supplier is solely responsible for all taxes assessable based on Supplier's income, property and employees. If EY is required under Applicable Laws to deduct withholding taxes from a payment to Supplier under the Agreement, Supplier shall assist EY as reasonably required to obtain authorisation, if available, in such a format that is reasonable and satisfactory to EY, to deduct zero withholding taxes or a reduced rate of withholding taxes. If such authorisation is unavailable or not granted, EY will pay: (i) the Charges to the Supplier net of the required withholding tax deduction; (ii) pay the withheld taxes to the relevant taxation authority within the period for payment stipulated by law; and (iii) as soon as practicable, furnish the Supplier with an official receipt or other evidence of withholding tax deduction.

In the absence of such documentation and information, EY shall have the right to deduct 30% US withholding tax on payments to Supplier. Sourcing information required by EY includes, by way of example, the following: (a) for general services: the proportion of the Charges relating to services performed in the US; (b) for licences allowing access to servers: the proportion of Charges relating to US based servers; (c) for hosted services: the proportion of Charges relating to US based servers and/or users; and (d) for software licences: the proportion of Charges relating to use of software by US based users.

8. Limitation of liability.
- 8.1 Except for Supplier's liability under Sections 7, 15 and 16 neither party shall have any liability to the other party, whether in contract, tort (including negligence), breach of statutory duty, or otherwise, for any indirect or consequential loss arising under or in connection with the Purchase Order, whether or not that party has been informed of or made aware that there was a serious possibility of such loss. The total aggregate liability of EY to Supplier whether in contract, tort (including negligence), breach of statutory duty or otherwise arising under or in connection with the Purchase Order is limited to an amount equal to 100% of the amounts paid or payable under the Purchase Order in the 12 months preceding the event or circumstances that gave rise to the liability. Notwithstanding any other provision of the Purchase Order or these Purchase Order Terms, Supplier's recourse with respect to any matter (including any obligation of EY hereunder) is limited solely to the assets of EY, and Supplier shall have no recourse against, and shall bring no claim against any other EY Network Member, nor any individual partner, director or employee of EY or of any other EY Network Member. Losses, damages and expenses suffered by EY Network Members in connection with this Agreement or its subject matter will be treated as though they were suffered by EY itself.

9. Assignment and Subcontracting.

- 9.1 Neither the Purchase Order nor any interest herein may be assigned, delegated, transferred or otherwise dealt with by Supplier without the prior written consent of EY. EY may assign any or all of its rights hereunder to any EY Network Member.
- 9.2 If EY consents to the sub-contracting of Services, Supplier shall remain fully responsible and liable for the performance of its and its subcontractor's obligations.

10. Cancellation/Termination.

- 10.1 EY may terminate the Purchase Order in whole or in part, with or without cause, at any time and without liability, upon written notice to Supplier. In the event of any termination, Supplier shall promptly refund to EY any fees which are prepaid or otherwise unused as at the effective date of termination, and no further fees shall be due from EY in respect of the Goods, Services Software and/or Works. Termination or expiry of the Purchase Order for any reason shall not affect the accrued rights and obligations of the parties at the date of termination or expiry (as applicable). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, EY may terminate the Purchase Order immediately upon written notice if EY believes, in good faith, that its professional obligations or regulatory requirements require termination.

However, except as may be agreed in writing by the parties, the Purchase Order shall not be binding upon EY unless signed or issued by an EY purchasing agent or such other authorised persons as have been designated in writing to Supplier by the EY purchasing agent (any of which, an "EY Representative"). Any alterations, modifications or additions made to the Agreement will be deemed of no effect unless expressly accepted in writing and signed by an EY Representative.

12. No Use of Name.

- 12.1 Supplier shall not use, or permit the use of, the name, trade name, service marks, trade marks, trade dress, or logo of EY or any EY Network Member in any form of publicity, press release, advertisement, or otherwise without EY's prior written consent.

- 13.2 Where the aggregate amounts contemplated to be paid to Supplier under the Purchase Order, and under all other agreements between EY and Supplier in effect within any fiscal year period (the "Relevant Period"), exceed or are expected to exceed 5% of Supplier's total revenues during such period, Supplier shall immediately: (i) notify EY to this effect to enable EY to undertake appropriate checks to ensure that it continues to comply with its independence obligations; and (ii) where Supplier is not an audit client of any EY Network Member, notify EY if any of Supplier's directors, officers or direct or indirect substantial equity owners and individuals with significant responsibility for providing services to EY are or will become a partner, executive officer, member of the Board of Directors, or a direct or indirect substantial equity owner (or otherwise with control), of any third party organisation. Supplier undertakes to

- 13.4 EY may terminate the Agreement, effective immediately, on written notice to Supplier where: (i) Supplier's representations, warranties and undertakings set out in Section 13.1, cease to be accurate or valid or are found to be false (Supplier being under an obligation to notify EY immediately it becomes aware of such occurrence); (ii) EY determines it must do so in order to comply with Applicable Law or any of its professional duties or obligations, including (without limitation) for audit independence related reasons.

14. Insurance.

- 14.1 Supplier shall maintain in effect throughout the term of the Purchase Order such insurance, issued by a nationally recognised insurance company of sound financial status, as is sufficient to cover all liabilities to which it may be subject in relation to the Agreement. Supplier shall deliver certificates of insurance evidencing required coverage upon EY's request.

15. Confidential Information.

- 15.1 Each party undertakes that it shall not at any time during the term of this Agreement, and for a period of five years after termination or expiry of this Agreement, disclose to any person any confidential information concerning the business, affairs, customers, clients or suppliers of the other party or of any member of the group of companies to which the other party belongs, except as permitted by this Section 15.
- 15.2 Each party may disclose the other party's confidential information (i) to its employees, officers, partners, representatives or advisers who need to know such information for the purposes of exercising the party's rights or carrying out its obligations under or in connection with the Purchase Order. Each party shall ensure that its employees, officers, partners, representatives or advisers to whom it discloses the other party's confidential information comply with this Section 15; and (ii) as may be required by Applicable Law, a court of competent jurisdiction or any governmental or regulatory authority.
- 15.3 No party shall use any other party's confidential information for any purpose other than to exercise its rights and perform its obligations under or in connection with the Purchase Order save that: (i) EY may disclose Supplier's confidential information to other EY Network Members and third parties providing services on its behalf who may collect, use, transfer, store or otherwise process it for purposes related to the provision of the services, to comply with regulatory requirements, to check conflicts, for quality, risk management, or financial accounting purposes and/or for the provision of other administrative support services and (ii) EY may request that Supplier's confidential information be disclosed to its financiers or financiers of any other EY Network Member and Supplier shall not unreasonably withhold its consent to such disclosure, provided that the recipients of such confidential information are bound by obligations to keep such information confidential.

- 16.2 EY appoints Supplier as processor. Supplier will not assume any responsibility for determining the purposes for which and the manner in which EY Personal Data is processed. Supplier (and its subcontractors) will not process EY Personal Data for their own purposes, nor include EY Personal Data in any product or service offered by Supplier to third parties.

- 16.3 Supplier will and will procure that all subcontractors will: (i) process EY Personal Data in accordance with the requirements as imposed under GDPR on processors; (ii) process EY Personal Data only in accordance with documented instructions from EY and Supplier shall immediately inform EY if, in its opinion (or the opinion of its subcontractors) an instruction infringes GDPR or any other applicable law; (iii) unless otherwise requested by EY, process EY Personal Data only to the extent, and in such manner, as is necessary for the provision of the Services; (iv) implement appropriate technical and organisational measures to protect EY Personal Data against unauthorised or unlawful processing and against accidental loss, destruction, damage, alteration or disclosure; (v) assist EY by appropriate technical and organisational measures, insofar as this is possible, for the fulfilment of EY's obligation to respond to requests for exercising the data subject's rights laid down in Chapter III of GDPR; (vi) notify EY without undue delay after becoming aware of a personal data breach (meaning a breach of security leading to the accidental or unlawful destruction, loss, alteration, unauthorised disclosure of, or access to, EY Personal Data transmitted, stored or otherwise processed) and keep EY informed of any related developments.
