Important notes

- This document is intended to provide a summary listing of administrative and legislative developments around the world relating to the implementation of the global minimum tax rules being developed under Pillar Two of the OECD/G20 BEPS 2.0 project. It provides an overview of developments in various jurisdictions, including the dates on which the relevant authorities, institutions, or legislative bodies have made public announcements or released official documents related to Pillar Two.

- It is important to note that the information provided in this document is subject to change. Although it is updated on a periodic basis to include the latest developments, it does not represent, and should not be viewed as representing, an exhaustive listing of the relevant news and developments with respect to the implementation of Pillar Two of the OECD/G20 BEPS 2.0 project.

- This material has been prepared for general informational purposes only and is not intended to be relied upon as accounting, tax, legal or other professional advice. It should not be relied upon for penalty protection or for any other purpose except for obtaining general familiarity with the subject matter thereof.

- The status summary herein is intended to be generic and should not be relied upon for the purposes of assessing any specific fact patterns. The administrative and legislative developments summarized in this document include items that have not been enacted and may undergo significant changes before they become law.

We appreciate your continued interest in our ‘Pillar Two Developments Tracker’. As the summer holiday season approaches, our team will be taking a break. We anticipate resuming our regular schedule and providing you with new updates starting again in July 2024.

Developments from the following jurisdictions and organizations have been identified and included in this update:

- Canada
- Lithuania
- OECD
- Spain

Development identified as of 21 June 2024 but not included in this update of the tracker:

- On 19 June 2024, Norway released the draft legislation on the Undetaxed Profits Rule (UTPR).

Further information regarding the development of Norway will be included in the next update of this tracker.

Acronyms: IIR (Income Inclusion Rule), UTPR (Undertaxed Profits Rule), QDMTT (Qualified Domestic Minimum Top-up Tax).

*Mauritius, Qatar and the United Arab Emirates have enacted a law incorporating an initial provision for the introduction of Pillar Two. Detailed provisions and regulations regarding how these countries will implement Pillar Two are expected to be developed in the future.

The United States is not included in the implementation overview above since this jurisdiction does not yet have final or draft legislation and has not yet indicated an intention to implement Pillar Two into domestic law. Additionally, the OECD is not included as it does not possess legislative authority.

Legend:
- "Intended" means there is a clear expectation based on publicly available information that this measure will be enacted by the jurisdiction.
- "Intended (Delay)" means that the jurisdiction has deferred the introduction of Pillar Two as allowed by the EU Minimum Taxation Directive whereby Member States that have a small number of headquartered groups within the scope of the rules can opt to delay their application of the rules for up to six consecutive fiscal years.
- ‘No’ means there is a clear expectation based on publicly available information that this measure will not be enacted by the jurisdiction within the next 3 years.
- “Unclear” means that either the jurisdiction has not publicly commented on the measure yet, or the jurisdiction has indicated that it will consider the measure in more detail at a later date.
- “Final legislation’ means a legislation approved by the relevant legislative bodies.” This term includes both, legislation already enacted or legislation that awaits a procedural formality to achieve official enactment.
- ‘Draft legislation’ means a preliminary version of a proposed law that is still under consideration and development.

* The European Union does not enact local legislation. However, it plays a role in guiding and coordinating the implementation of Pillar Two measures among its Member States through directives and regulations. For the purposes of the European Union line item above, “No” indicates that the EU has not yet released any documents related to the applicable rule.

* Refer to the latest entry of Denmark in section ‘Jurisdiction reactions on Pillar Two’.

2 The OECD/G20 Inclusive Framework on BEPS does not possess legislative authority. Instead, it offers guidelines and recommendations for the implementation of Pillar Two. For the purposes of the OECD line item above, “Yes” indicates that a document (such as model rules, guidance or consultation document) has been published by the OECD regarding the implementation or application of the respective rule.

Legend:

- ‘Intended’ means there is a clear expectation based on publicly available information that this measure will be enacted by the jurisdiction.
- ‘Intended (Delay)’ means that the jurisdiction has deferred the introduction of Pillar Two as allowed by the EU Minimum Taxation Directive whereby Member States that have a small number of headquartered groups within the scope of the rules can opt to delay their application of the rules for up to six consecutive fiscal years.

Legend:
- ‘Intended’ means there is a clear expectation based on publicly available information that this measure will be enacted by the jurisdiction.
- ‘Intended (Delay)’ means that the jurisdiction has deferred the introduction of Pillar Two as allowed by the EU Minimum Taxation Directive whereby Member States that have a small number of headquartered groups within the scope of the rules can opt to delay their application of the rules for up to six consecutive fiscal years.
- ‘No’ means there is a clear expectation based on publicly available information that this measure will not be enacted by the jurisdiction within the next 3 years.
- ‘Unclear’ means that either the jurisdiction has not publicly commented on the measure yet, or the jurisdiction has indicated that it will consider the measure in more detail at a later date.
- “‘Final legislation’ means a legislation approved by the relevant legislative bodies.” This term includes both, legislation already enacted or legislation that awaits a procedural formality to achieve official enactment.
- ‘Draft legislation’ means a preliminary version of a proposed law that is still under consideration and development.

Note: Developments Tracker cut-off date - As at 21 June 2024
