Dear Sirs

Richard Irvin & Sons Limited (In Administration) ('the Company')

Notice to creditors of intention to declare a dividend – Claim previously submitted

I write to inform you that I intend to declare a nominal first and final dividend in respect of the Prescribed Part in the Administration of the Company and I note that you currently have a claim in the Administration.

I enclose, for your attention, formal notice in accordance with Rules 14.29 and 14.30 of the Insolvency (England and Wales) Rules 2016 of my intention to declare a dividend and would draw your attention in particular to the last date for proving claims set out in the notice.

Please be aware that all previously submitted claims have been loaded on to the website below for the purposes of adjudication and you can review the quantum of your claim using the unique login details provided.

If you believe that your claim is correctly stated, there is no further action required from you at this stage. You may however be required to provide such further details or produce such documentation or other evidence as may appear to me to be necessary.

If you believe that your claim is incorrectly stated, you are required to submit a revised proof of debt form together with supporting documentation in order to amend your claim. A hard copy proof of debt form can be downloaded from https://www.ey.com/en_uk/ey-richard-irvin-sons-limited-administration. Please note any required amendments must be submitted by the last date for proving claims set out in the notice or you will be excluded from receiving a dividend payment in respect of the revised claim.
