Mexico postpones legislative action on outsourcing bill to 2021

Mexico's president has announced an agreement between the Mexican government and the business and labor sectors to postpone until February 2021 further discussion and legislative action on the outsourcing bill proposed on 12 November 2020. The proposed outsourcing bill would prohibit individuals and entities from outsourcing services. Even though legislative action on the bill has been postponed, companies should still evaluate how their operations may be affected by the bill, if enacted.

Canada reintroduces stock option proposals

Canada's Fall Economic Statement reintroduces changes to the taxation of employee stock options first introduced in the 2019 federal budget. The changes introduce a CA$200,000 annual limit on employee stock options that may qualify for preferential tax treatment. This limit will not apply to stock options granted by Canadian-controlled private corporations (CCPCs) or non-CCPCs with annual gross revenue of $500 million or less. The changes are prospective and will apply to stock options granted after 1 July 2021.

Canada Revenue Agency releases preview of revised form for reporting relating to foreign affiliates

The Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) has released a preview of the revised Form T1134, Information Return Relating to Controlled and Non-Controlled Foreign Affiliates. The revised form will be officially released in January 2021 and apply to tax years that begin after 2020. No legislative changes to the provision that establishes reporting requirements regarding foreign affiliates have been proposed to accompany the changes.

EY Canada releases latest issue of TaxMatters@EY

TaxMatters@EY, a monthly bulletin prepared by EY Canada, provides a summary of recent Canadian tax news, publications, and resources. Highlights of the December 2020 issue include: (1) year-end remuneration considerations for private company owners, and (2) a recent Tax Court of Canada decision that found a taxpayer to be a resident of Canada even though he had significant ties to another country during the same taxation year.
